Yu Hua conceived this book of essays on China from a writer's perspective while preparing for a lecture on the topic of "A Writer's China in March 2009 at Pomona College. The content soon became a collection of China in its dynamic transition. Allan Barr, Pomona College Professor of Asian Studies comments, ..".partly auto-biographical, it's a commentary on social issues in China." Barr is in the process of translating the book into English. German, Russian, Italian, Portuguese, Swedish, Korean translations are in the work and the French edition titled "La Chine en dix mots" is published 9/2010. Due to potential censorship of the content's overtone, this book will not be published in China. In Chinese. Distributed by Tsai Fong Books, Inc.
