About the Novel: The Color Purple is the Pulitzer Prize-winning story about female African-Americans in 1930s southern United States. The story follows Celie, a young girl who begins writing letters to God after her father's abuse. She is forced into a marriage with Mr. Johnson after her father impregnates her twice, presumably killing both children. Celie continues living a life of obedience when she is exposed to Sofia's defiance of Mr. Johnson and his son's attempts to submit her. This results in Sofia moving out and taking her children with her. Meanwhile, Celie grows close to her husband's ill mistress, becoming confused over her feelings for the woman. The story progresses with

Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2016 im Fachbereich Anglistik - Literatur, Note: 3,0, Universität Rostock (Anglistik), Veranstaltung: Black History in America, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: "The Color Purple" is one of the first novels that deals in detail with the oppression of African-American women. On the one hand it has been the first book by a female African-American writer that received the Pulitzer Prize for fiction and has until today been part of the canon of the African-American women's literature, but on the other hand it also has been criticized for the negative portrayal of men. In this term paper I want to analyze the intentions of the author Alice Walker to write about the theme of female oppression. At first I exemplify the two occurring forms of female oppression, sexism and racism, by the main characters of the novel. By regarding the numerous interviews Alice Walker has given concerning her writings and by regarding her biography, I will outline her intentions and determine whether she wrote about female oppression due to her own experiences with the theme or whether she had other motives. The Birth of New Babes' Study Guide I'm Saved, Now What? The year of 2012 the month of April, After two years of teaching Bible class, God gave me an assignment to write this book. He spoke to me in a vision, saying, "I have gifted you with the ability to talk to people and explain my Word with clarity. This book should be written as a study guide. The primary purpose is to answer questions that most new babes have, but the spirit of pride and fear is keeping from asking." I pray that through this book, the question of "what's next?" has been answered and that you've received your own revelation of who God is, his plan and purpose for your life. Thank you for your love and support. Love, Your sister in Christ Minister Andrea Michelle Riley Study to shew thyself approved to God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (1 Timothy 2:16) often underestimated critique of racial relations in the novel The Color Purple. This analysis will be based primarily on a closer look at Nettie's letters – the narrative's embedded text that has been neglected by most of the early critical works on the novel. It will be shown that one of the novel's central questions is: Is a progress in race relations possible? And furthermore, that Walker's answer to that question is not at all as fairy-tale-like as many critics have claimed the ending of the novel to be. The main sources for my line of argumentation will be, of course, the novel The Color Purple 1 itself, Alice Walker's essay collection In Search Of Our Mothers' Gardens, and Linda Selzer's essay Race and Domesticity in The Color Purple.
