What does the Bible really say about money? About wealth? How much does God expect you to give to others? How does wealth affect your friendships, marriage, and children? How much is "enough"? There's a lot of bad information in our culture today about wealth and the wealthy. Worse, there's a growing backlash in America against our most successful citizens, but why? To many, wealth is seen as the natural result of hard work and wise money management. To others, wealth is viewed as the ultimate, inexcusable sin. This has left many godly men and women confused about what to do with the resources God's put in their care. They were able to build wealth using God's ways of handling money, but then they are left feeling guilty about it. Is this what God had in mind?

The Life Lessons with Junior series is a four book series created to teach basic principles about money and, yes, life to children of all ages. From working and saving, to giving and spending, these wonderful stories will teach real life 'stuff' and the stories are so fun, children won't even know they're learning. The final of four books in the Life Lessons with Junior series teaches children the value of saving. My Fantastic Fieldtrip will teach children the benefits of planning ahead for the future. Each book in the Life Lessons with Junior series has practical tips for parents to use as they teach their children these life-changing principles.

"This is the official handbook for Financial Peace University. If you are following Dave's teaching, you already know what is in this book. But if you're new to Dave this is the book for you."--Publisher's website.

When Dave Ramsey was experiencing his own Total Money makeover, he found that journaling was very helpful and effective. Dave says, "Take this journal and record everything happening that seems like a big deal. Record the relationship issues, the debt, the emotions, the setbacks, the victories, and anything else that seems important at the time. "The immediate benefits of writing everything down are twofold. First, writing helps you process the problems and victories. The second immediate benefit of journaling is that you can reread your entry just days-even months-later and gain vital perspective on your progress. "Write it down. You will be glad you did."
