English-language translations of traditional plays from the marionette puppet theater of northern China. Marionette puppet theater has a rich and ancient history in China, extending back to the Han dynasty and reaching its heyday in the Qing dynasty. While this art form is nearly extinct in northern China today, a handful of troupes in Heyang County in Shaanxi Province, which claims to be the birthplace of marionette theater, continue to perform skits and scenes from Heyang's earlier, broader marionette theater repertoire. In this book, Fan Pen Li Chen has collected and translated rare transcriptions of some of the most popular of these plays. Her insightful translations include a rich variety of genres and highlight memorable characters that range from manipulative aristocrats, poor Confucian scholars, and a woman warrior to Baldy Guo, the iconic clown of puppet theater. As the only work in English about the puppet theater of northern China, these translations provide valuable information about the history, religion, social roles, and popular culture of that region. Detailed introductions and annotations for each play, as well as an extensive bibliography, are also included.

Best selling author Dutch Sheets will inspire and encourage readers with this clear, revelatory study of God's appointed times and seasons. Going beyond the basic definitions of kairos and chronos, Dutch brings fresh insight to the subject, examining Scripture to show how kairos (strategic) times and chronos (general) times are not two separate and unrelated seasons in our lives but rather, are often simply different phases of the same process. Dutch looks at how God brought about His divine shift in the lives of men and women throughout the Bible, and the many ways in which God used these seasons of change to deepen His people's understanding of Him.

One of the most common crises among Christians today is the failure to develop and nourish godly relationships. Sadly, there is little or no distinction between Christians and non-Christians in this area. Most homes today resemble the drive-through window at a fast food joint with family members coming and going but with no real communication taking place. Beyond the home, the corporate church body is fragmented by members unable to agree on what are often minor issues. For those tired of conforming to the world's model for relationships, Bishop Eddie L. Long presents the biblical model. What a Man Wants, What a Woman Needs will enable you to: Identify the missing element in relationships that will foster better communication. Understand the key principles necessary for godly living and godly communication. Learn to identify and resist attacks from the Enemy. Understand the power of a wise woman and the roles of godly men.

It Started with a Vow...In 2014, after having given up on love following a broken engagement and a string of heartbreaks and disappointments, I made a choice or, more so, a vow that I would no longer share my body or any form of intimacy with another person unless they truly loved me. This is when everything would change. This is when God would show up and reveal several truths to me...1. Why I had suffered such setbacks in relationships. 2. That I never had to suffer. 3. That I could make the choice to never suffer again. In the subsequent three years after this revelation, I would learn that those relationships could not last because they weren't meant to last and had only showed up in my life to teach me but one crucial lesson: that I had to learn to love and honor myself. Have you met your soul mate? Do you feel like your about to meet them? Would you be able to tell the difference? Would you like to? After reading AGTBYM, you will discover the following: What happens when God reveals you've met the one, Common signs and synchronicities, Why you and your partner will seem to have overlapping life experiences, What to do if your soul mate is already married or in a preexisting relationship, and much more.

PRELUDE "Two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one." John Keats, Finding true love is priceless. For many, living a lifetime falling more in love with the one you love is only a dream. Can you put a price tag on finding the one who loves you--heart & soul--solely for your heart? There's no monetary equivalent to finding the Love-of-your-Life. Wouldn't it be great if you had someone, versed in the ways of love, to help find your One-and-Only? That's what hundreds of men and women do on the hit reality TV show The Millionaire Matchmaker. For tens of thousands of dollars, millionaire bachelors hire Patti Stanger, the Millionaire Matchmaker, to help them find the only thing they haven't acquired, their True Love. Patti has a massive index of the most eligible men and women in Southern California and boasts of having a 98% match success rate. Watch out e-harmony! If we all had a matchmaker this successful to help us find Mr. or Miss. Right and avoid Mr. or Miss. Wrong, it might make some of us feel a little better about our chances of finding our true love. Though Patti's operation is impressive, wouldn't it be great to have a matchmaker who had an even bigger Rolodex than her? Let's say someone who had access to the most eligible individuals across the country or, for you international types, across the world? You might even feel better about your chances of finding your soul mate, if this matchmaker was a personal family friend, had watched you grow up, knew pretty much everything about you and had offered their matchmaking services when ever you were in need of them? I think many of us would. I hope it won't come as a surprise, when I tell you that I employed someone much like this to help me find Casey, the absolute Love of my Life. Without hesitation, I can say, that the time, training and money I invested totally paid off. Like my matchmaker told me, you can't put a price tag on finding everlasting love. If you're single, you might be thinking you would be interested in getting his business card. (Even if you're not "in the market" right now, it might be good to have his contact info for some other time.) I promise, if you've seen the film Hitch, He's the real life Alex Hitchens, only better. He's incredibly smooth--a true Love Doctor. He's helped even the most romantically challenged individuals find their way down love's, occasionally bumpy, path. His staff services a 24-hour a day help line. He has a global database and connections everywhere. He is the world's foremost expert on love and a divine matchmaker. I relied upon his advice every step of the way and now I am hopelessly in love with the woman of my dreams. He led me into a romance with the right person at the right time and for that I am forever appreciative. Surprisingly, most people have heard of my matchmaker, but had no idea that he was so proficient in the art. You may be asking who this love guru is? His name is God. While many lovers often believe they are truly a match made in heaven, few would go as far as to say that God, himself, was their Matchmaker. I think this may be an expertise of his that many grossly under acknowledged today, but is clearly attributed to God throughout the Scripture. Abraham was a believer in God's keen matchmaking ability. This is undeniable, just look at the instruction he gives to his servant sent to pick up a wife for his son, Isaac. He says, "God will send his angel ahead of you to get a wife for my son." (Gen. 24: 7). Now if you've heard this story before, you might gloss over this verse and continue with the story. But if you stop and really think about what Abraham is saying, it is a bit bizarre. I've never heard anyone talk like this. I've never heard a pastor preach on this? Actually, if anyone did say to me that God's angel was going to pick out my spouse, I would probably recommend an excellent twelve-step program I know of. For most of us, the idea of winged angelic beings making people fall in love isn't totally a foreign concept, but we just expect to find this type of thing on Valentine's cards or in Greek Mythology, not in the Bible. So either Abraham was in need of some serious rehabilitation or maybe the person whom God called his "good friend" was on to something (Is. 41:8). The man sent to get Isaac's "unknown" bride also believed God was a matchmaker. Abraham had instructed him to get a wife from his hometown, Nahor. The servant came to a spring outside the city, where all the young ladies came to get water. He prayed that God would reveal the young lady to him by a specific sign. He would know it was her if when he asked for a drink of water and she would not only give him a drink but also offer to water all ten of his camels (an act that would take hours of labor to accomplish). When this happened, he would take it as a sign that God was "working graciously behind the scenes." (Gen 24:14) The servant knew God was working behind the scenes--the Matchmaker was on the move--but asked for God's help to uncover who that person was. As soon as the servant finished his prayer, he saw God begin to work. A "stunningly beautiful" girl came with her jug to draw water from the spring (Gen. 24:16). Her name was Rebekah. The servant asked her for a drink and she obliged him and then proceeded for the next few hours to water all of his camels until they had "drunk their fill" (Gen. 24:19). The servant silently watched her wondering, "Was this God's answer? Had God made his trip a success or not?" After she was done, the servant gave her five very expensive pieces of jewelry. Can you imagine Rebekah's shock? Her dinnertime spent serving at the well was rewarded with breakfast at Tiffany's. The Bible says she ran back home to tell her parent's (and if her neighborhood was as rough as mine growing up, I would have ran too, if I was carrying that much bling!) The servant came to Rebekah's house and discovered it was the very family Abraham desired his son's wife to come from. He told them about the sign he had asked God for. How Rebekah fulfilled it by watering his ten camels. How he prayed, "Let [that] woman be the wife God has picked out for my master's son" and God worked behind the scenes to help him find the perfect match for Isaac. The family agreed and replied, "This is totally from God. We have no say in the matter, either yes or no." (Gen. 24:50). The next morning, the family asked the servant to let Rebekah stay a little while longer, but the servant said, "Oh, don't make me wait!--God has worked out everything so well--send me off to my master."(Gen. 24:56 emphasis added) Rebekah's family asked her, "Do you want to go with this man?" (Gen. 24:56) Rebekah replied, "I'm ready to go." (Gen. 24: 58) When Isaac met her, he fell completely in love. Rebekah had a ravishingly beautiful exterior, but her interior must have been just as captivating to Isaac, because he let her wholly into his heart. Though there is not a lot of description of their early years together, we do know that after she came into his life, something shifted in his soul. His heart became healthier. His life became richer. We know that at least one of the deepest wounds in Isaac's heart was healed through their union. Through Rebekah, Isaac's heart finally found "comfort after his mother's death." (Gen. 24:67) They were truly a match made in heaven. If God is a matchmaker and knows everything about you, and everything about everyone, wouldn't he know who your perfect match is? If he's truly working behind the scenes trying to match you up with the right person, wouldn't it make sense to ask God for help uncovering who that person is? It worked out well for Abraham's servant and, ultimately, for Isaac and Rebekah. It might just work out well for you too. God's divine handiwork has united many hearts with their True Love. This can be observed all throughout Scripture and attested to by many who have followed his matchmaking advice today. I followed his matchmaking advice and it worked out wonderfully for me. He brought me to my true love, Casey, and I could never adequately express my gratitude to him for this. In the pages ahead, we'll look at a few Biblical examples of the Divine Matchmaker at work, but mostly Casey and I will share about our experience working with him as he divinely orchestrated our love story. We'll share some of his time-tested tips, secrets, and wisdom--so if you decide to use his services, you'll know how he works and be a little ahead of the game. We really hope you'll use him. There's no one who's been at it longer or is better at it than he. However, if you do choose to go with him, you must remember--though his principles on love are timeless--he never brings two hearts together the same way. Here's to your match made in heaven! We hope you'll send us a wedding invitation. Read and you'll discover that this book for living a holy single life is based on sound biblical precepts. If It's Broken Fix It, his third book, represents another step in his quest to build stronger marriages and families for a stronger community. The book seeks to take couples on a journey that motivates, inspires, and challenges them to take a faith walk through a valley that leads to a successful and joyful marriage. He explains to couples the limitations that they may experience and the obstacles they may have already conquered. This book will allow broken marriages to be transformed into fruitful marriages. Marriages that have been experiencing mediocrity will be resurrected to the glory of God. Rev. McMillan demonstrates his teaching skills that he learned in the educational arena over the course of thirty-nine years (during his training sessions). He removes and destroys all hurdles as he teaches strategies that help couples discover the sparks and heights in their marriage. One of the biggest decisions you will make in life is to pair up in marriage. While this is an important consideration for both men and women, it is an especially important one for women. This is because the number of eligible women surpasses that of eligible men in most communities. Secondly, men tend to take longer to decide on settling down in marriage, which makes test-driving relationships that end nowhere frustrating for women. But, if you have been looking and Mr. Right has yet to come knocking at your door, what do you do? Simply, you don't leave it all to chance as though you expect him to fall from the sky, you do your homework. As you do, please don't chase a man, attract him! Are you tired of being played by men who won't commit? Do you look forward to the day when you are the bride rather than the bridesmaid? Have you had enough of being bumped by less endowed women time and again? Do you believe that it is time for you to be the main show in the arms of your own man? If the answer to any of these questions is "yes", for you, a friend, schoolmate, family member, coworker, churchmate, or friend of a friend, then look no further. This is your moment to act and the tool you need. Husband Magnet will not only help a single woman fast-track to success in attracting a worthy man for marriage, it is a handy companion for a married woman who wishes to spice up her marriage. This book will teach you how to be a husband magnet.

A daily devotional based on the New York Times bestselling The Wait, filled with inspiring readings about how having the patience to wait for God's best—instead of grasping for what you want right now—can transform your life. In The Wait, DeVon Franklin and Meagan Good, a Hollywood power couple who famously saved sex for marriage, shared the life-changing message that waiting—rather than rushing—can be the key for finding the person you're meant to be with. Now, their powerful message is reflected again in The Wait Devotional. Filled with scripture, prayers, and DeVon and Meagan's trademark conversational style, this 90-day devotional is packed with real-time advice for men and women trying to successfully navigate the ins and outs of dating, love, and relationships. You'll discover how waiting for everything—from sex to getting engaged—can transform your entire life by giving you greater patience, joy, peace, healing, faith, and love. Whether you're waiting for the right person to come along or you're searching for the strength to put intimacy on hold, The Wait Devotional can help you slow down and trust in God's perfect timing, day by day.

Many books have been written in the past about journeys. There are stories written about journey to the center of the earth, journey to the depths of the sea, journey to the outer space and even journeying through time. Our Christian life is a journey too, that we began the moment we came to accept Christ as our Lord and Savior. It is a journey with a destination; eternal life with Christ in heaven. And as with most journeys, it is not without its challenges and trials. This book is a compilation of articles that I have written in my Christian journey, that details my reflections and thoughts as I journey with Christ. While some of them may be personal experiences, others are my reflections over contemporary issues in life. Our journey and the road we take will determine whether we will reach our destination.

The premise of Spiritual Liaisons is simple: asking God to help as a matchmaker during the conduct of your relationship search. The book is anecdotal, in that it's all about the author and his wife, who developed a relationship while online dating, using Christian websites. The chronology of events for the couple is non-specific; however, basic guidelines, advice, struggles, triumphs, pitfalls, and common-sense protocols will enable the reader to digest and implement the material, which will hopefully culminate in a Christ-centered dating process and possibly marriage.

Matchmakers & Rogues is a collection of five Regency romance novels and novellas by author Caylen McQueen. In An Impossible Bride, a wallflower finds herself in an unexpected love triangle. In Miss Lacey's Love Letters, a spinster finds a stack of romantic letters... and finds herself intrigued by their author. In A Gentleman's Challenge, a bedridden young lady falls in love. In Hardly a Gentleman, a young woman finds love after seven years of denying her feelings. In Miss Moseley the Matchmaker, a spinster, secretly in love with her best friend, faces an impossible task: finding a match for him.

A question was asked in my dream sometime in January 2014, but blessings of his word that I might share it came in the morning hours that led up to making new changes once again. Amen! As one hand reaches out to close the doors of inequity and despair, the other hand (right hand) of fellowship is extended to grasp a sincere understanding of joy, knowing the desires of your dreams are at hand. As I looked at life and sat in counsel, breathing new levels of hope and deliverance, I found joy in the works that were allotted in this gift of writing. My hopes and dreams is that this book would reach out to touch the lives of many with the understanding that if you give up on your dreams, restoration is not an option leading to a more profitable journey. I have lived every aspect of the words that I write, whether it was on a personal level or vicariously through the struggle of others. This is meant to bring hope to a wide audience and not just focus on one group. My message is one that is simple but of epic proportions when I speak love and encouragement. First learn to love yourself before you can share that love with others. Never settle in contentment when there are other aspirations to bring joy, understanding you are not in this struggle alone.

This book contains the truth about dating that opposes to God's that the Church has embraced. As a result we're reaping the same destructive results as they. It exposes the dangers of creating situations where people could fall into sin, creating emotional, mental, spiritual and physical bonding with the wrong person, and how we're sending a confusing message to the world as they see our hypocrisy in what we preach and practice. I also share my own testimony and how God brought my husband and I together supernaturally without our efforts to make it happen, realizing that these are God's principles and standards for marriage, which can also be applied in all areas of our lives.

Finally I share the only key to one's happiness deep intimacy with Jesus, not marriage.
