Father or everyone's support system rather. Well, every child needs this helping hand once we enter this world. No matter, how many more anthologies I'll be compiling in the future but this anthology, "Father: One Of A Kind" will always hold a special corner in my heart and will be the closest to the same. Thankyou is indeed a short word to describe his affection, care, and all the best things he tries to give us. Father indeed one of a kind as this very human can't be substituted by anyone. He is one of the masterpieces that the almighty had created and sent on the earth. To me, my father is everything as seeing him smiling makes me feel as if I'm winning the entire world which is the purest vibe. The very motive behind compiling this anthology was to dedicate a book full of emotions, love, care, and respect to the backbone of every family. Firstly, my heartfelt gratitude to the Almighty who had always been kind, and for showering all his blessings constantly on me for making this project successful in the shortest time span. Came to Piyush Arora Sir (Founder of the Brown Page Publication) who had always been very kind, supportive, and easy-going always. Thank You so much,

Sir My project head Sonia Paruthi Mam, always assured me that she is just a call away whenever I need her. She had been a great support throughout the project. A big thanks to her for offering me a chance to work as a Compiler under this esteemed publication. Coming to all my co-authors, friends this was really impossible without your support and love. You all had worked really hard. Your dedication towards the project is really appreciable. Last but not the least, to all the beautiful minds and purest souls who are going to read this book, hoping that this one turns out to be an absolute delight for you all. Happy Reading :)

"Life is an emotional rollercoaster is the cynosure of this pulchritudinous compilation named Dastaan_e_zindagi". Each day teaches us something new, To solve the problem with a golden view. Every day we get up with a new ray of hope. Life is as beautiful as the patterns of kaleidoscopes. We cannot understand its mystery. Everything has its own chemistry. Between two evils we pick the one we haven't tried, It doesn't matter if we cried. Failure gives us a tight slap, We learned a great lesson at each and every step. Tomorrow is not promised for anyone, One day we all will become a memory for someone. Let's do good and bring a smile to everybody's faces, Our goodness will be the left traces. Optimism is the key to overcoming any obstacle, Every problem we can easily tackle. Sometimes the wrong choices take us to the right place, Each day with a new pain strength we chase. A beautiful heart can win the whole world, Even if we do not speak a big word. In the end, we do get a sweet fruit, Although the pain might be its root. Every day does something good and doesn't be sad in your sorrow. One day this will turn into your greatest strengths of tomorrow. Do it now whatever, You wish to, later never. Life is not about finding yourself, Rather it's about writing your destiny yourself. It doesn't matter if you are different from others, You are unique, not a part of a swarm, not to bother. Let's do something, A moment that changes everything. Close your eyes, Look whether your heart cries? Put your hand on your heart, Let all the emotions be a part. Ask your soul did you hurt someone, Search any moment from day one. A time for introspection, The one you made cry learned a lesson. Imagine how difficult the journey would have been, When those little eyes betrayals were seen. God gifted you 86400 seconds today, Thank you or sorry? Use one to say. It takes a strong person to say sorry, Requires a stronger one to forgive, creates glory. A time to look inside the heart, Maybe there is someone breaking apart. Mend it soon before it's too late, No one waits when the demise gate opens.

Digha Lodge presents a fairly true rendering of the extraordinary events surrounding the Jamil family, particularly its patriarch, Sayed Jamil Ahmad. When Sayed was just two, he lost his father but remained steadfast to face the challenges of a fatherless childhood. His is the story of a self-made man who gave his children the best a father can give—without compromising his principles or succumbing to social pressures. Written by Ahmad's son, Syed Sabir Jamil, Digha Lodge is the story not only of one family, but also of a nation. It captures decisive moments in both histories, from the creation of Pakistan to its tragic dismemberment and the impact these life-changing events had on the family. They bravely faced the many difficulties and challenges of migration together. It is a story of prides and prejudices, fears and fulfillments, and commendations and condemnations. Psychic and mystical, the stories shared in Digha Lodge are captivating, entertaining, and enlightening, framing a bold narrative of true, untold stories of the Jamil family's lives, losses, and loves.

This book contains English translation of about 270 poems and quatrains derived from the 8 books of Urdu poetry that Faiz Ahmed Faiz published from 1941 to 1984, over a tumultuous period of 4 decades. For helping him and his poetry put in context, the book includes a 'Preface', how other writers viewed his poetry, including his own views on his poetry and how it sought social justice and freedom of speech and action, through his own incarcerations. This is another effort to bring to English readers poetry from a culturally philologically distant language and culture, and 'A Word on Translation' elaborates the issues involved. Recent Emergency in Pakistan (November 2007) also showed how relevant his poetry still was when protestors marched around, one of the slogans being, "Bol" ('Speak Up'), the title of a poem he published in 1941.

A Bridge with Three Spans: An Indian Muslim Boy Lives through Major Events of the Twentieth Century tells the threefold story of a boy who grew up in Bihar, India, attended college and worked as a civil servant in Pakistan, and then traveled abroad through his years working for the International Center of Public Enterprises and the United Nations. Chronicling his early life in rural and small town India, Ahmed then recalls his life as a college student and civil servant in Pakistan. It was a time of intensifying communal conflicts set within the backdrop of major historical events, which created a profound concern in Ahmed for the fate of millions of poor and helpless people of the subcontinent. The stunning contrast of geography and cultural heritage between the countries where Ahmed served evoked a deep love of the natural world and profound curiosity about ancient history. Through it all, Ahmed remained dedicated to excellence in education and intellectual development. This memoir recounts the fascinating stories of a man who has crossed the borders of countries from India to America and encountered amazing events and intriguing people along the way.
