

Matrimonial Proceedings Practice Notes Series

The third edition of this popular book brings the law relating to debt recovery fully up to date. This guide on assessment of people with some sort of mental impairment is a broad ranging report produced jointly by the British Medical Association and the Law Society. It is an authoritative statement on an important area. Its wide ranging coverage makes it essential reading for these groups. The second edition has been revised throughout to bring it right up to date with present requirements.

This fourth edition provides a picture of the law and practice relating to matrimonial proceedings in Family Proceedings Courts, County Courts and the High Court. In particular it deals with the radical changes which the Children Act has made to the public law and private law relating to children.

This book provides a practical guide to the Children Act 1989, its subordinate legislation, case law and social work practice, including equal opportunities.

This new edition is extensively revised to take account of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 as they affect costs law and practice in contentious cases. The new Rules and Practice Directions relating to funding arrangements, including conditional fee agreements, are analyzed.

This book acts as a practical guide to procedure for the young practitioner and also provides the more experienced practitioner with a ready reference to this sometimes
