"The kind of book for which the word "rollicking" was invented."--New York Times Book Review An Indie Bestseller One of Bustle's Best New Books Out June 2021 A Popsugar Best Summer Read of 2021 A prim and proper lady thief must save her aunt from a crazed pirate and his dangerously charming henchman in this fantastical historical romance. Cecilia Bassingwaite is the ideal Victorian lady. She's also a thief. Like the other members of the Wisteria Society crime sorority, she flies around England drinking tea, blackmailing friends, and acquiring treasure by interesting means. Sure, she has a dark and traumatic past and an overbearing aunt, but all things considered, it's a pleasant existence. Until the men show up. Ned Lightbourne is a sometimes assassin who is smitten with Cecilia from the moment they meet. Unfortunately, that happens to be while he's under direct orders to kill her. His employer, Captain Morvath, who possesses a gothic abbey bristling with cannons and an unbridled hate for the world, intends to rid England of all its presumptuous women, starting with the Wisteria Society. Ned has plans of his own. But both men have made one grave mistake. Never underestimate a woman. When Morvath imperils the Wisteria Society, Cecilia is forced to team up with her handsome would-be assassin to save the women who raised her--hopefully proving, once and for all, that she's as much of a scoundrel as the rest of them.

Lady Evelyn Gisborne desires to be a proper young noble-woman, but independence runs strong in her blood. She follows her heart as well as her head, and temptation soon beckons her in the form of a handsome rogue. Rene Jean-Bastien is clever, bold...and forbidden, for she has been promised to another. Simon Jean Carre, Marquis of Laroque, is a born soldier. His life is committed to the pursuit of battle and the honor of the knight's code. When he journeys to the Gisborne estate, his only intention is to meet his promised bride. But he soon finds himself entwined in the life of a most unusual family...and falling in love with the woman he has sworn to keep at a distance. Evelyn is torn between two loves. Will she choose the man to whom she is promised...or the dashing thief who has stolen her heart?

He's a spy— Certain truths aren't his to share... London, 1854 ~ Frederick Woolsey is Queen Victoria's finest spy. His mission at the Russian Embassy's annual ball is one of the most critical ones of his life, but his careful plans end in disaster. The book he was assigned to secure has been stolen and now England and Russia are on the brink of war. Even worse, the love of his life has caught him in another lie (he's a spy, certain lies are expected). However, in this case, it might mean he'll lose her forever. She's a lady who demands honesty-- above all else The nights Lady Josephine Harrington spent with Frederick in her bed were glorious... enough to tempt her to consider abandoning her independence as a wealthy widow to spend her life with him. Tonight, he canceled their plans to attend the Russian Embassy's ball, saying he would be otherwise engaged. Now

Elizabeth Lange has arrived at Cypress Point Spa in Pebble Beach, California, weary of heart and soul. Still grieving for her beloved sister, a famous actress who plunged to her death from her Manhattan penthouse, Elizabeth is determined to unearth the truth about how Leila died. Dashing multimillionaire Ted Winters stands accused of her murder, but Elizabeth has doubts. Along the windswept cliffs of the Monterey coast, in luxurious bungalows, between gourmet meals and beachfront walks, uneasiness stalks Elizabeth while she begins opening doors to the past. As glimpses of the dark truth about Leila's life and death -- and about Elizabeth herself -- start to crash against her mind, an ominous wave from an unexpected source threatens to engulf her entirely.

Anita Topaz, Queen of the Bodice Rippers, is deliberately a woman of mystery. But pressure is mounting for Anita to reveal herself to her clamoring public. It's scrutiny that writer Paris Ellison can't allow, especially since the glamorous "Anita" is a work of pure fiction. Lady Diana Beckinsale excels at disappearing into a good role. Especially if that role gets her close to certain objects she desires. When Diana proposes the perfect solution to Paris's predicament, Paris is less than enthusiastic. She can't let someone as unsettling and observant as Diana get too close. But Diana is persistent. After all, if she and the handsome, secretive Paris both get what they want out of an unorthodox arrangement, then it's a win-win for them both. My Lady Lipstick is high stakes on a merry-go-round of lies—it's all fun and games until somebody loses her heart.

Lottery winner-turned-amateur sleuth Alvira Meehan joins forces with private detective Regan Reilly to track down the ninety-foot tree, destined for display in Rockefeller Center, that vanished en route to the city, unaware that the tree contains a secret cache of priceless gems, hidden by scam artist Packey Noonan before being sent to prison. 500,000 first printing.

Wilkie Collins was an English novelist, playwright, and short story writer. My Lady's Money, published in 1879, is a novel that centers around a rich woman who is a victim of theft. There are a lot of possible suspects she must sort through. One of them – an honest girl Isabella. The Lazy Tour of Two Idle Apprentices tells the story of sightseeing trip to Cumberland of Charles Dickens and his friend, the rising star of literature, Wilkie Collins. Writing together, they reported their adventures for Dickens' periodical Household Words, producing a showcase of both long-cherished and entirely novel sides of these well-loved men of letters.

Thief, a masked man who rescues unwilling brides from their suitors, she encounters Eric Landsdowne, the Earl of Wesley, whom she finds strangely compelling.

Collects the stories of a woman who probes her sister's death and finds her own life in danger, a woman whose questions about her childhood unlock a dangerous secret, and a divorcee who marries a painter and is drawn into terror. Adeline has been at the mercy of others her entire life: the aunt and uncle who constantly remind her she should be grateful they took her in after her parents died of a tragic illness. Her guardian in the city who constantly reminds her that she should be grateful they're giving her a coming of age in the city. The suitors who make it clear she should be grateful they're lowering themselves to even consider her. The only person who's ever made her feel wanted was Lisette, the maid she once fell in love with. The maid who fled in the night with stolen goods, including the pearls that were all Adeline had left of her mother. Then, while at yet another ball where she feels alone, out of place, and trapped between choosing happiness or doing what's expected of her, Adeline encounters the beautiful Lady Wisteria—whom Adeline knows better as the maid Lisette...

THE SEX THIEF: The guy who sleeps with every lady You wished you knew how not to fall cheaply on any man's bed? You wished you had the power to defend your woman from men armed with sex traps? You wished you had a manual to guide your daughter from deceitful men? Now, with The Sex Thief: The guy who sleeps with every lady. You can. Peter Ajuwon, the director of "My Relationship Market" has spent over 10 years on relationship counseling. In The Sex Thief: The guy that sleeps with every lady, he has shared what he had learnt from experience. He exposes five distinct types of the sex thief: -Mr.-Fix-It: This is the nice guy who is always around a lady to fix everything, after which he compensates himself by sleeping with his prey.-The Dirty Talker: This is the guy who constantly talks dirty to sexually arouse ladies before sleeping with them.-The Spoiler: This is that guy who condemns every other person, to promote himself and his sex ambition.-Despredator: Also known as The Predator of the Desperate. He is that guy who goes after desperate ladies.-The Pity-Piper: This guy tells you stories that will make you pity him and freely sleep with him. The level of infidelity among the married has risen to the utmost high. Many ladies who vowed chastity find it difficult to keep their vows. A lot have slept with men they are not in love with. Some have gone to prayer meetings to cast out 'the demon' moving them into uncontrolled sex. This is a problem that faces the married and the unmarried alike. This book will help you to detect and guard against the tricks of the sex thief. The Sex Thief: The guy who sleeps with every lady was written to help save ladies from falling for the tricks of men who are out, looking for innocent ladies to warm their beds. This book shows you the likely type of sex thief that is after you, how to avoid him and how to come out permanently from the bed of a sex thief.
