Newbury Literary Gold Award writer + New York Times best-selling writer Kate. Di Cameo's latest masterpiece The Three Musketeers finally sets free from the shackles of life and bravely marches towards the Beverly who has fled home like she wanted to be. This time, she really left. Walking along the highway, she was met by an old lady who loves to play bingo, a restaurant job, sincere friendship, July Christmas... She chose to stay here because of love and acceptance. Anything in this world will happen.
Just because of uncomfortable things you don't dare to think about, doesn't mean it didn't happen, it doesn't mean it's not true.
